Severinus Petrus Paulus Hermans

Qualifications: He graduated from University of Amsterdam with a degree of Master of Science in Business Economics in 1990, and took his post graduate degree from Tilburg Institute of Advanced Studies with Master of Marketing in 1997.

Relevant Experience: His career started with ING Netherlands after earning his Master's degree in business at the University of Amsterdam.

After initiating a strategic review to accelerate ING's retail insurance business, he was invited by the Executive Board to join the Strategy & Planning department, where he was soon promoted to Vice President. Beside strategic reviews of several business units he headed some of the Group's strategic initiatives including ING Direct's Euro strategy.

Rien was assigned to head ING Philippines as President & CEO when he was 33 years old. Building a business, leading a team, managing change especially after the Aetna acquisition and working in the Philippines fitted him like a glove. He later on headed ING's retail business in Malaysia and subsequently Poland.

He later on became President and CEO of AXA Philippine from 2009 to 2016 where he doubled assets under management, tripled premium income, quadrupled sales, and quintupled its appraisal value during his 7 years of leadership.

Walter de Oude

Qualifications: He finished Bachelor of Economic Science, Economics from the University of the Witwatersrand in 1994.

Relevant Experience: Like all entrepreneurs, Walter de Oude started with a strong belief - The potential of money can be unlocked for everyone, and that existing financial services were not doing a great job at it so far. As the founder and CEO of Singapore Life, he has achieved what many thought to be an almost impossible task - starting a life insurance company from scratch. This is a role for which he is very well suited - an actuary and former multinational insurer CEO. Singlife has grown from strength to strength with a fast-growing capital base, continuing innovation and strong customer support. Walter has lived in Singapore predominantly since 2000, and considers Singapore to be his long-term home.

Michelle Suarez-Balois (Corporate Secretary)

Qualifications: She graduated from the Ateneo de Manila University with a degree in AB Philosophy in 2007, and achieved her Juris Doctor degree from the Ateneo Law School in 2011.
